BRIEF VITAE

Personal

Dr. Betty Jane Fratzke (Mrs. Michael)
Born: Marion, Indiana 4-5-47
Married: 1971; Two daughters, 4 grandsons

Education

B.S. Education, Greenville College 1969
M.S. Education/Psychology, University of Illinois 1970
Ed.D. Psychology and Adult Education, Ball State University 1988

Experience

College Professor:	LeTourneau University Longview, Texas, 1971-84
College Professor:	Indiana Wesleyan University Marion, Indiana Head of Psychology Department 1984 – Present Chair, Division of Behavioral Sciences since 1995
Frequent Seminar Speaker
Member	American Association of Christian Counselors and Christian Association of Psychological Studies (CAPS) Society for Christian Psychology

Recent Peer Reviewed Publications and Presentations

- July 2009. Chapter in Book. Fratzke B.J. "Utilizing Frankl's Concept of Hope in Promoting Existential Well-Being" in Existential Psychotherapy of Meaning: Handbook of Logotheraphy and Existential Analysis, edited by Batthyany and Levinson, July 2009.
- CAPS, 2009. "A Look at the Role of Faith, Forgiveness, and Learned Optimism in Healing." Orlando, Florida.
- SCP, 2008. "Relationship, Intimacy and Attachment." Chicago, Illinois.
- CAPS, 2008. "The 'I-Thou' of Attachment and Intimacy." Phoenix, Arizona.
- CAPS, 2007. "Transformation in Education: A Double Edged Sword"
- Andrews University Press, 2006. "Playing for God" in College Faith, Vol. 3
- Oxford Round Table, July 2005. "Understanding and Enhancing Childhood Relationships"
- CAPS, 2004. "Parental Attachment and Faith Development: a pilot study."
- American Psychology Society, 2003. "The Neuropsychology of Forgiveness."
- CAPS, 2003. "Unmasking the Long Ranger: The Role of Attachment in Religiosity Development."
- Brunner-Routledge, Inc., 2002. Transcript review of On the Theory and Therapy of Neurosis, by V. Frankl.

- CAPS, 2002. "Instilling Responsibility in Children."
- CAPS, 2001. "Philosophy Addressing Tolerance in Counseling in the New Century."
- International Conference on Meaning in the New Millennium, June 2000. "Frankl's Logotheraphy and the Hope Scale Research Tool."
- CAPS, 2000. "The role of Hope in V. Frankl's Logotheraphy.

Addendum to VITA for Dr. Betty Jane Fratzke
(Activities during 2002-2007 contract period
Submitted for Contract Renewal of 2007-2012 contract period)

1. Christian Formation
   - Active member at College Wesleyan Church
     - Speaker for Parents of Teens – March, 2004
     - Women's Bible Study "Life of Paul," January – March, 2003
     - Followed by Tour of Bible Lands with Wilbur Williams in December, 2003
     - Taught class one quarter for "Parenting Small Children" – Fall, 2006
     - Presented "Developing Emotionally Healthy, Christian Women" at Lakeview Church, Marion – September 19, 2002
   - Attended workshop on Role of Faculty in Spiritual Development of our Students – May, 2004
   - Attended Oakwood Retreat Center, Syracuse, IN, Women's Retreat with Lori Salerno – October, 2004
   - Attended Women of Faith Conference, Fort Wayne, IN – August, 2006
   - Led devotional for National Library Association Conference at IWU – May, 2006

2. Integration of Faith and Learning
   - Christian Association for Psychological Studies (CAPS) presentations:
     2002 Developmental Aspects of Teaching Responsibility to Children @ Chicago
     2003 "A New Look at Attachment for Christian Adults" @ Anaheim, CA
     2004 "The Neuropsychology of Forgiveness" in St. Petersburg, FL – presented with E. Richards
     2004 Adolescent Separation and Faith: Changing the Nature of Our Secure Base – co-presented with B. Robinette @ St. Petersburg, FL
     2005 Attended CAPS in Dallas "Knowing and Intimacy"
     2006 Submitted proposal to CAPS on Measuring Inner Transformation of Students Experiencing Third World Ministry.
   - Member of Board of Directors for Midwest Region of CAPS – elected in 2006 for 3 year term
   - Attended American Association of Christian Counselors National Conference, October, 2006
   - Devotional published in College Faith 3, Andrews University press, 2006.

3. Learning in Community
   - Piloted teaching a distance learning class for General Psychology with IWU and Heritage Christian High School in Indianapolis, January – April, 2002.
   - Attended AAHE Conference on Faculty Roles and Rewards, in Phoenix, January, 2002.
   - Attended CCCU Faculty Development Conference, Boston, May, 2002.
   - Attended C. S. Lewis and Friends presentation at Taylor University, November, 2002
   - Featured December, 2003 in Marion Chronicle as one of the "Community Champions Among Teachers."
   - C. S. Lewis and Friends discussion on "Lord of the Rings," January, 2003

- Attended AAHE Faculty Development Conference in Washington DC, March 14-17, 2003
- Attended and participated in faculty workshop, May, 2003 at IWU
  - Teaching Tips
  - Introduction to Blackboard Technology
  - Writing World Changing objectives
- Participate in Life Calling workshop May 22-23, 2003
- Conducting pilot study with current students to look at pedagogy, cross-cultural experiences, and inner transformation of students – currently ongoing.
- Participation in four book clubs sponsored by Honors College Athens and Jerusalem program
- Participation in Scholarship Weeks at IWU.
- Attended 5 workshops "The Academic Leader" sponsored by Magna online seminar at IWU/APS, September – October, 2006.

4. Scholarship

- See five CAPS presentations listed under Criteria #2
- See pilot study underway listed at the end of Criteria #2
- "Forgiveness" workshop sponsored by Drs. James Lakety, Cross Country University, October, 2005
- "Childhood Developmental Disorders" August, 2004, CCU Conference in Ft. Wayne.
- Play Therapy workshop, Indianapolis, December, 2005
- Attended every Faculty Development workshop and Your Work is Your Worship chapels, 2002 – 2005, held at IWU.
- Paper presentation at American Psychological Society in Atlanta, co-authored with Erin Richards and Dr. Michael Boivin, "Forgiveness, Brain Laterality, and Quality of Life," June, 2003
- Reviewed newly translated V. Frankl manuscript On the Theory of Therapy of Neurosis for Brunner-Routledge publisher, January, 2003.
- Participated in C. S. Lewis Inklings Conference at The Cove, NC, Feb. 21-23, 2003.
- Attended C. S. Lewis Colloquium at Taylor, March 12-14, 2004 and again in June, 2005 (2 ½ day conference each year).
- Recognized by Who's Who Among American Teachers in book, 2004 and 2006.
- Paper accepted for presentation July, 2005, at Oxford Round Table, University of Oxford, UK "Understanding and Enhancing Childhood Relationships."
- Attended workshop in Assessing and Treating Reactive Disorders Among Children: Beyond Defiance, sponsored by CCU held in Indianapolis, Feb. 12, 2004.
- Reviewed Child Psychology 4th edition by Vasta, Miller & Elis for John Wiley and Sons publishers.

5. Servant Leadership

- Currently mentoring Professor Janice Adams as new director of Social Work program in my division.
- Support staff for leadership of Kids Hope, 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006.
- Mentored new Division Chair each of last three years.

- Member CAPS Board (Regional), 2006-2008.
- College Wesleyan Church Board, 2003, 2004, and 2005.
- Committee work listed under Criteria #7 and Faculty Development work under Criteria #8.

6. Assessment and Evaluation

- Work with my Division faculty on their classroom teaching, and on writing world changing objectives in their syllabi.
- Participate in Senior Psychology majors Field Test Exam administration and analysis with department faculty.
- Oversight of Social Work program application for accreditation reaffirmation.

7. Advising and Mentoring

- Advise all the Pre-Art Therapy majors.
- Advise my share of Psychology majors.
- Advise all Focus on the Family attendees.
- Service all Division in assisting with advising.
- Mentored three new faculty during this contract period, plus four adjuncts.
- Mentored several new Division Chairs last three years.
- Worked with three Honors College thesis projects
- Worked with at least 28 Psychology majors on admission to graduate school during the last four years.
- Frequently take students to National CAPS conference.
- Work with students for Scholarship Week at IWU, April, 2003 – 2006.

8. Community Service

- College Church Board member, 2003-2005
- CAPS Regional Board, 2006-2008
- Kids Hope support role weekly, 2002-2006
- Athens-Jerusalem seminars, four semesters
- Promoted starting regular Faculty Prayer Chapels, 2006
- Academic Affairs Council, 2002-2006
- Faculty development Council Chair, 2002-2006
- Lead New Faculty Orientation, 2002-2006
- Attend Honors College Colloquium 2-3 times per term.

New Addendum being prepared for current Five Year Contract Period (2007-2012) will follow new rubric outline)