

TIMOTHY M. BEUTHIN

tim.beuthin@indwes.edu

Education

Doctor of Philosophy, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
Emphasis: student affairs administration, instruction, adult learning theory, organizational behavior, and communications

Master of Divinity, Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, KY
Emphasis: pastoral ministry and Christian education

Bachelor of Arts, Spring Arbor College, Spring Arbor, MI
Emphasis: double major in philosophy/religion and social science

Diploma: Bridgeport High School, Bridgeport, MI.

Work experience

Indiana Wesleyan University
School of Service and Leadership
Department of Graduate Studies in Leadership
Professor of Organizational Leadership (2006-present)

Design and facilitate courses in the Ph.D. program in Organizational Leadership; design and administer research studies in leadership; and serve on dissertation committees.

Indianapolis Center for Congregations, Indianapolis
Education Director (2000-2005)

Designed and implemented seminars, workshops, conferences and long term learning experiences for lay and clergy leaders in the greater Indianapolis area; contracted with nationally recognized resource persons to address a variety of issues related to congregational life; utilized a variety of learning methodologies, including peer learning groups, appreciative inquiry, coaching and training seminars; consulted with congregations across a broad ecclesiastical spectrum.

World Ministries Center-Free Methodist Church of North America, Indianapolis
 General Secretary of Higher Education/Director of Leadership Development
 (1995-2000)

Served as the liaison between the general church and its supporting colleges, universities and seminaries; planned and coordinated the annual executive meeting of the Association of Free Methodist Educational Institutions; directed the John Wesley Seminary Foundation; planned and coordinated the annual Graduate Student Theological Seminar; provided oversight of denominational credentialing services and training programs.

Spring Arbor College, Spring Arbor, MI

Assistant professor in Alternative Education (1992 to 1995)

Taught courses in adult development, Biblical survey and the 400 capstone course; supervised project theses; advised students.

Assistant Professor of Religion (1991-1992)

Taught courses in Principles of Christian Education, Gospels and Acts, Leadership and Administration in Pastoral Ministry, Core 100 freshman course, Core 200 cross-cultural course (Jamaica) and oral communications.

Director of the Summer School Program (1991-1992)

Recruited faculty, negotiated contracts, marketed programs, coordinated facility and student services, and managed budgets.

Special Assistant to the President (1991-1992)

Reviewed campus committee structures, campus master plans and Board of Trustees organizational structures; created a trustee manual prototype.

Dean of Students (1985-1991)

Led a team of 15 professionals responsible for all campus student services.

Southern Michigan Conference-Free Methodist Church

Albion Free Methodist Church, Albion, MI (1982-1985)

Pastor

Clarified the mission of the congregation, shaped its vision and mobilized resources to accomplish that vision.

Publications and Presentations

Beuthin, T. (September, 1992) Faculty Respondent-Graduate Student Theological Seminar. Newark, New Jersey.

Boivin, M., Beuthin, T., & Hauger, G. (1993) Why Christian students leave Christian colleges: evaluating the dynamics of adjustment in a Christian community. The Journal of the Freshman Year Experience, 5. 1.

Moore, S., & Beuthin, T. (Eds.). (1998). The university through the eyes of faith, Indianapolis, IN: Light and Life Communications.

Beuthin, T. (May, 1996). Friendship with God. Illustrated Bible Life, Word Action Publishing Co. Kansas City, MO.

Beuthin, T. To be (and do) or not to be (and do), that is the question: Developing scholarly practitioners (November, 2007). Midwest Scholars Conference. Indianapolis, IN.

Ludden, V. & Beuthin, T. (November, 2007). Leadership of the mind: Exploring emotional intelligence, mental preferences and leadership. International Leadership Association Conference. Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

Drury, S., Johnson, B., & Beuthin, T. (November, 2007). Successful graduate leadership programs: lessons and reflections. International Leadership Association Conference. Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

Ludden, V. & Beuthin, T. (February, 2008). Faith Integration at the Graduate and Doctoral Level. CCCU Adult Education Conference. Indianapolis, IN.

Mann, D. & Beuthin, T. (March 2011). The leader as steward within the Christian organization. Midwest Scholars Conference. Indianapolis, IN.

Beuthin, T. (June, 2011). Bringing strange ideas to their ears: Faith integration in the classroom. No Educator Left Behind Conference. Indianapolis, IN.

Ludden, V., Johnson, B., Beuthin, T., Drury, S., Freemyer, J., & Barnes, J. (October, 2011). The multifocal organizational leadership model and its application to leadership development. International Leadership Association Conference. London, England.

Beuthin, T. (June, 2012). Integrating spiritual formation into the teaching learning experience. CAAHE Biennial Conference. Kansas City, MO.

Beuthin, T. (2013). The agony and the ecstasy of spiritual formation. In Tweedell, C.B., & Fleming, C.T (Eds.), In Best practices in the integration of faith and learning for adult and online learners (2nd Ed.). (pp.17-36). Columbus, IN: Sue Breeding.

Ludden, V., & Beuthin, T. (April, 2014). Character and virtue in leadership. Tobias Leadership Conference. Indianapolis, IN.

Beuthin, T. (June, 2014). Leading with moral imagination. Child Welfare Leadership Conference. Indianapolis, IN.

Ludden, V., Winston, B.E., Beuthin, T., Barnes, J., Bugenhagen, M.J., & Matkin, G.S. (October, 2014). Preparing stewards of the leadership field: A workshop for doctoral administrators & faculty. International Leadership Association Conference. San Diego, CA.